New Product:

Marine Phytoplankton:

This new product contains 200 species of Marine Phytoplankton and has only recently been made available for human consumption. The elements and electrolytes in plankton are extremely beneficial for humans. Phytoplankton contains super concentrated lipids (fats) to enhance brain function, support cardiovascular function and provide a healthy cell wall. It is clinically shown to reduce cholesterol and stabilize blood sugar levels. It helps increase mental alertness. Phytoplankton relieves pain and inflammation, both inside and outside the body. One very exciting property of plankton is its ability to help the eyes, and is shown to be more effective than Lutein. To learn more visit: www.whyplankton.com/anotherday.html. Or, you can always stop by the store for more information and samples. 303-452-6798

UltraPure Cosmetics

This mineral make up is completely free of all harmful ingredients. It contains no dyes, fillers, parabens, sodium lauryl sulfate or petrochemicals.
